

The Magic of the Mountains- Cathy King

*The snow coming down
Big white flakes
Just like a scene
From a Hallmark movie
Partially Cloudy
With rays of sun from the heavens
I can feel it
The whispers from God
Through nature
Blessing each of us
As we ski in the trees
And through the fresh powder
A blessing to be alive
A blessing to be with family
A blessing to be healthy and able to ski
A blessing to connect with nature
The ebb and flow of Quiet, peacefulness and
Playfulness and joy
The beauty of nature in perfect balance*
