Dates: December 14-January 11 (Reflection paper due Jan 4)

Open House January 4

Title:

Relationship: The Hardest Spiritual Work

Intention of Session:

1. Learn some models for common pitfalls and their avoidance in relationship
2. Continue to use and develop the awareness wheel in relationship
3. Learn and work with our early models for relationship
4. Continue to grow in our awareness that we are all inter-related
5. Become aware that our deepest spiritual work is done within relationship

Post Zoom Reflections:

1. Write a list of intentions for 2019 incorporating your deepest values and wants.
2. What happens when you begin to notice that your mind (maybe how you have always identified yourself) is so interdependent and absolutely dependent on that interdependence.
3. Write a reflection paper about what you have noticed when adding the concepts of interpersonal neurobiology to the awareness wheel, comfort zone, accountability, and power of intention. How do you think the development of an Enneatype relates to neurobiology?
